Policy on absences, late work or missed exams

Late work (turned in any time after the due date and time) may be turned in up to one week late, for a maximum of 50% credit.

Description of Evaluation Items (see Canvas for due dates)
1. Reflective journals (20 pts). Each Sunday before 11:59 pm, you must submit a 200-300 word description of your professional experiences and a reflection on the week.
2. Practicum site requirements (10 pts). You will provide an overview of your site responsibilities. These should include your duties as a practicum student as well as the organization policies related to dress code, punctuality, illness (who do you contact if you’re sick), etc. These must be typed and signed by your site supervisor. See Canvas for an example.
3. Development of learning outcomes (10 pts). You will create a list of 5 measurable practicum objectives that have been developed and agreed upon by your supervisor and yourself. These objectives must be able to be mastered by the conclusion of your practicum. Use Bloom’s taxonomy of action verbs. Bold your action verbs. (See Canvas for example).
4. Resume and list of references (10 pts). With assistance from the Career Center, you will design a professional resume and a list of at least three professionals you could ask to provide letters of recommendation.
5. Midterm evaluation (10 pts). Your supervisor will complete and review an evaluation of your performance by the end of the 5th week. Points are awarded for turning in the evaluation.
6. Final evaluation (60 pts). Your supervisor will mail your final evaluation to me. Be sure to give it to him/her at least 1 week in advance (during the 3rd week) so s/he has ample time to complete it.
7. Signed timesheet (mandatory). Submit your signed final timesheet via Canvas.
8. Student evaluation of site (mandatory). Submit your evaluation of your practicum site.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT
The College of Public Health and Human Sciences strives to create an affirming climate for all students including underrepresented and marginalized individuals and groups. Diversity encompasses differences in age, color, ethnicity, national origin, gender, physical or mental ability, religion, socioeconomic background, veteran status, sexual orientation, and marginalized groups. We believe diversity is the synergy, connection, acceptance, and mutual learning fostered by the interaction of different human characteristics.

EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENT CONDUCT
The Student Conduct Code establishes community standards and procedures necessary to maintain and protect an environment conducive to learning, in keeping with the educational objectives of Oregon State University. This code is based on the assumption that all persons must treat one another with dignity and respect in order for scholarship to thrive. For the full Student Conduct Code see http://oregonstate.edu/studentconduct/

Academic or Scholarly Dishonesty is prohibited and considered a serious violation of the Student Conduct Code. It is defined as an act of deception in which a Student seeks to claim credit for the work or effort of another person, or uses unauthorized materials or fabricated information in any academic work or research, either through the Student's own efforts or the efforts of another. For specifics related to offenses proscribed by the University see: http://oregonstate.edu/studentconduct/offenses

RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY STATEMENT
Oregon State University strives to respect all religious practices. If you have religious holidays that are in conflict with any of the requirements of this class, please see me immediately so that we can make alternative arrangements.

STUDENTS WITH DOCUMENTED DISABILITIES
“Accommodations for students with disabilities are determined and approved by Disability Access Services (DAS). If you, as a student, believe you are eligible for accommodations but have not obtained approval please contact DAS immediately at 541-737-4098 or at http://ds.oregonstate.edu. DAS notifies students and faculty members of approved academic accommodations and coordinates implementation of those accommodations. While not required, students and faculty members are encouraged to discuss details of the implementation of individual accommodations.”

OSU-CASCADES ETHOS STATEMENT
The guiding vision of OSU-Cascades is to contribute significantly to intellectual, cultural, ecological, social and economic vitality. To achieve that goal, the OSU-Cascades community will strive to model principles and practices of a thriving, equitable and sustainable society. A culture of learning and exploration provides significant rewards to its members; those rewards are best achieved when all community members (faculty, staff, administrators, students and Board of Advisors) strive to honor the following principles:
1. Respect the dignity and uniqueness of individuals. This principle applies to a diversity of cultures, belief systems, academic ranks and academic/ professional disciplines.
2. Aspire to excellence and integrity in every endeavor.
3. Consider current and future generations in every deliberation.
4. Demonstrate leadership in service to community.
