Course Description:
Individual instruction in classical guitar. Admission is open on a proficiency placement basis. Co-requisite: Participation in Guitar Ensemble

Required Material
Nylon string guitar (there may be some available for rent through the school)

Student Learning Outcomes:
The student will be able to:
1) Demonstrate proper technique and musical expression on the guitar
2) Demonstrate a professional attitude and commitment toward preparedness
3) Prepare for and execute a musical performance
4) Investigate the solo repertoire from a variety of historical periods

Attendance:
Attendance at each of the 8 lessons per semester is expected. The instructor must be informed of any missed lessons prior to the lesson time. Makeup lessons are the student’s responsibility.

Preparation:
The development of musical skills requires a professional dedication to practice. Students are responsible for preparing assigned material before the lesson in order to best receive guidance—the instructor can work successfully only with those who are prepared. Adequate and consistent practice is crucial in for musical and technical progress to be made.

Jury:
Students will perform repertoire learned in lessons in a jury examination for a panel of music faculty. A sign-up list will be available prior to the end of the semester.

Students must perform for juries unless excused by the instructor. Canceling a jury appearance for a reason not approved by the instructor is grounds for an “F.”

Methods of Evaluation:
• Weekly preparation of performance assignments
• Final jury performed for a panel of music faculty
Grading:
Lessons (70%)
Jury (30%)

Statement of Expectations for Student Conduct
